I-B-A-20+ Integration bridging program for adults

⇒ For learners with legal residence in the Canton of Zug:

The I-B-A-20+ is subsidized by the Canton of Zug.

The Participants bear part of the costs themselves. The price for 4 months (1 trimester) is CHF 1'160.00.

The amount will be invoiced during the first month of the current trimester.

Attendance at the I-B-A-20+ is limited to a maximum of 3 trimesters. The maximum cost for an entire year of the program is therefore CHF 3'480.00.

If participants attend external, paid courses due to their personal goals, they can deduct up to CHF 400.00 per trimester (or CHF 100.00 per month) from the contribution upon providing proof of payment.

Further reductions, cuts, or refunds of the contributions due to hardship cases may be approved by the program management.

The admission and information interview are free of charge.

Career orientation year

The bridging programs of the Canton of Zug can cover the costs of a career orientation year for five young people in the following order of priority:

1. Priority 1:
Young people with a learning disability (according to the internationally recognized statistical classification of diseases and related health problems [ICD-10]: code F.81.3) and/or persistent learning goal adjustments in several subjects.
2. Priority 2:
Young people with multiple impairments due to a diagnosed autism spectrum disorder or higher support requirements (1:1 guidance) identified by the school psychiatric service or special support needs identified by the special education teacher, and who have unsatisfactory grades in several subjects

The costs for young people with legal residence in the Canton of Zug are covered by the public authorities.

A personal contribution of CHF 1,500.00* (annual fee) corresponds to the costs specified in the regulations for bridging programs at secondary II schools. The amount will be collected directly by the provider.

*Admission requirement:

The legal guardians confirm that they will pay the contribution of CHF 1,500.00 for school events and material costs.
